A typology of social entrepreneurs: Motives, search ... As a point of departure in developing our typology, we build alternative conceptualizations of entrepreneurship derived from Hayek (1945), Kirzner (1973) and Schumpeter (1942). The typology allows us to identify similarities and differences among the broad range of individuals and organizations engaged in social entrepreneurship. Value (economics) - Wikipedia Economic value is a measure of the benefit provided by a good or service to an economic agent. It is generally measured relative to units of currency, and the interpretation is therefore "what is the maximum amount of money a specific actor is willing and able to pay for the good or service"?. Among the competing schools of economic theory there are differing theories of value.
